CORRECTIONS

- In the April 2009 issue's "Food" feature, we neglected to identify the artwork in the background on page 156. The piece is by artist Meredith Bingham. For information, visit meredithbingham.com.
- In the May 2009 issue's "Entertaining" feature, we made an error in the ingredient list for Rosie Daykin's Cookies & Cream Cake (page 54). The amount of butter required is 1-1/2 cups.
- In the May 2009 issue's "Design Lessons" feature, we misidentified two pieces of art. In fact, the piece on page 88 (shown, above) is by artist JJ Lee (not Sharon Thompson); the piece on page 89 (over the fireplace) is by David Gillanders (not Sharon Thompson). The work of both artists is available through Art Interiors, Toronto (416) 488-3157 or artinteriors.ca.
- In the May 2009 issue's "Reform Cool" feature, we spelled an artist's name incorrectly on page 113. The artist is actually Rob MacInnis, and information on his work can be found at robmacinnis.com. We apologize for the errors and any inconvenience they may have caused.
