100 DINING & THE ARTS

La Pastorale is a charming boutique in Owen Sound, filled with the loveliest of hand quilted, monogrammed pillows, coverlets, hand embroidered lingerie, French milled soap, and fabulous custom made items in antique linens – many pristine white or white on white.

Owner Pamela Smith, a designer, loves fine needlework and has filled her boutique with the essence of the best of France. Her romantic heart shows in her selection of merchandise on display for her clients: delicately embroidered pillows and cushions, table linens, and exquisite bags. She also carries small furniture items and her own home grown lavender. Her motto – “The Romance of France in the Heart of Owen Sound” describes this light-filled boutique perfectly.
